

Adams Free Library is Hosting an Evening Story Time with McCann Technical School Students and SkillsUSA on Thursday,
March 5, 2020 at 6:00 p.m.

ADAMS MA – Children ages 3-10 and their families are invited to join the Adams Free Library in welcoming McCann Technical School's SkillsUSA chapter officers as they read "Clothesline Clues to Jobs People Do" written by Kathryn Heling and Deborah Hembook. This is a guessing book about jobs. They will also lead a craft activity to help youngsters explore possible career choices.

McCann Technical School's mission is to graduate technically skilled, academically prepared, and socially responsible individuals ready to meet the challenges of the 21st century. McCann has an enrollment of approximately 530 students and provides training in nine secondary technical majors and five postsecondary (grade 13) majors.

About SkillsUSA: "SkillsUSA is a partnership of students, teachers and industry working together to ensure America has a skilled workforce. SkillsUSA helps each student excel. We provide educational programs, events and competitions that support career and technical education (CTE) in the nation's classrooms."

Children age 3-10 and their families are invited to this Evening Story Time event to be held at the Adams Free Library, 92 Park Street in Adams on Thursday, March 5, 2020 at 6:00 p.m. An adult must accompany children under 8 years of age. Library events are free and open to the public. Attendance at library programs constitutes consent to be photographed; photos may be used in print or electronic publicity for the Adams Free Library.
