Magic by Scott Jameson at Adams Free Library

Thursday, July 28, 6:30 p.m. Part of "Read Beyond the Beaten Path" Library Summer Reading

ADAMS MA – Families and children of all ages are invited to join the Adams Free Library hosting Magic by Scott Jameson on Thursday, July 28 at 6:30 p.m. This free and open-to-the-public event will be held at the library, 92 Park Street.

Join magician and juggler Scott Jameson for an extraordinary performance that will have you laughing out loud and perched on the very edge of your seat. Umbrellas will be plucked from thin air, a drawing will come to life, basketballs will be spun and juggled, and the audience will travel through time. Don't miss it!

Scott Jameson presents performances that feature magic, Juggling, and other less definable bits of entertainment. His training in gymnastics, dance, acting, and even microchip programming, has helped him to create performances that are uniquely his own.

"Read Beyond the Beaten Path" is sponsored by the Adams Free Library, the Massachusetts Library System, the Boston Bruins, and the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners.

This program is supported in part by a grant from the Cultural Council of Northern Berkshire, a local agency which is supported by the Mass Cultural Council, a state agency. Additional funding provided by the Friends of the Adams Free Library.

Families and children of all ages are invited to join the Adams Free Library for this presentation. An adult must accompany children under 8 years of age. Library events are free and open to the public. Attendance at library programs constitutes consent to be photographed; photos may be used in print or electronic publicity for the Adams Free Library. Questions? Call the Adams Free Library at (413)743-8345 or visit the library's website www.adamslibraryma.org for more information.
