Magic Wings Travel Show Live Butterfly Library Event in Adams

Wednesday, August 3, 11:00 a.m. Part of “Read Beyond the Beaten Path” Library Summer Reading

ADAMS MA – Families and children of all ages are invited join the Adams Free Library hosting Magic Wings Traveling Show at the library on Wednesday, August 3, at 11:00 a.m. at the library. To register, call (413)743-8345. This event is free and open to the public.

Magic Wings Butterfly Conservatory and Gardens Travel Show offers a one-hour educational program which covers the butterfly life cycle, habitat, nutrition and anatomy and a display case with approximately 30 live butterflies. They will also bring a lizard as well as a few other tropical insects which are the hands-on portion of the show. Everyone attending will receive an educational packet of all covered information.

“Read Beyond the Beaten Path” is sponsored by The Adams Free Library, the Massachusetts Library System, the Boston Bruins, and the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners. Additional funding provided by the Friends of the Adams Free Library.

This program is supported in part by a grant from the Cultural Council of Northern Berkshire, a local agency which is supported by the Mass Cultural Council, a state agency. Additional funding provided by the Friends of the Adams Free Library.

Families and children of all ages are invited to register and join the Adams Free Library for this presentation. An adult must accompany children under 8 years of age. Library events are free and open to the public. Attendance at library programs constitutes consent to be photographed; photos may be used in print or electronic publicity for the Adams Free Library.
